BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Jerry Mulenburg, Ph.D.
Senior Analyst
NASA ARC

Biography:

Dr. Gerald Mulenburg is a senior analyst in the Systems Management Office at the Ames Research Center where he supports projects, and project managers, and is participating in developing relevant training to new and mid-level Ames project managers. His research into the characteristics of NASA project managers provides insight into what makes them so successful in their role. He has published widely in the peer-reviewed literature and presented his findings at a number of international conferences on project management.
